

ORIENTAL GARDENERS OBJECT TO STRENUOUS FOOTBALL

BOUNDING AERATED PIGSKIN SUPPLANTED BY A BOMBARDMENT OF STONES.

Another Dispenser of Illicit Intoxicants Added to the Growing List—Sad Sidelights of the Mourners' Bench—Police Court Notes.

From an outward appearance an epidemic of football of the most strenuous brand has penetrated into the wilds of the district of Kapahulu, and the infection has taken a strong hold upon the young America of that section.

Spectators at police court yesterday morning were regaled with an account of an exciting game of the popular sport in which the youth and hope of many residents of Kapahulu and Waikeke prominently figured. The bounding pigskin was being treated to a general hot foot all over a large area of territory by about thirty lads, of mixed nationalities, when two offending Chinese gardeners happened along, bearing the yellow man's burden, consisting of a varied assortment of vegetables. It was at this juncture that the rules governing the game became relegated to oblivion by the youngsters. A Portuguese lad possessing sound muscle and an unerring aim gave the football a well-directed blow, and sent it out in the direction of the Chinamen. The ball landed squarely upon a tender spot upon the Celestial anatomy, and this deflection of the football from its wonted course was considered as a declaration of war by the Chinese agriculturists. Once securing possession of the sphere, they refused to relinquish the same upon a mere formal demand. Then followed all kinds of trouble, but it was soon over. A number of lads including Portuguese and Hawaiians began a bombardment with stones upon the Chinese, who finally believed discretion the better part of valor, and fled to a more peaceful locality. They reported their troubles to the sympathetic ear of a policeman, and in a subsequent raid made upon the football aggregation William Hooe, Aikaula and H. Selvia were brought into the custody of the law, being charged with assault and battery upon Lau Tin, the Chinese.

Each defendant appeared before Judge Wilcox provided with an attorney. The local lights penetrated deep into the intricacies of the game. Technical points were bandied about with great recklessness. Long discussions followed upon the amount of force exerted in a swift moving pigskin filled with wind, should it strike a man when not feeling in the best of humor.

The prosecution claimed that the youngsters had made life a burden to many residents in that portion of the city, owing to previous deeds of lawlessness, and acts of hoodlumism. The lads were found guilty as charged, and were sentenced to ten days at hard labor on the reef, with court costs added. A notice of appeal was filed in the case of Sylvia.

Three individuals who looked very much the worse for wear and tear, half shuffled and half skated to the judicial forecassle and acknowledged that they were sadly befuddled owing to an excessive use of strong drink. The trio drew the regulation prizes and resumed their places on the mourner's bench.

Mannet Tavash, charged with heedless driving, was tendered a nolle proes.

Susukal, a Japanese jebu, explained the many wherefores which caused his arrest the other evening upon a charge of heedless driving. He was granted a nolle proes.

Little Johnnie Martin, a self-confessed truant, was brought up for hearing. The lad's parents were not present in court, hence a postponement was ordered until their side of the case can be learned.

Ah Hin, a Chinese vagrant, who has kept the police busy watching his movements, was sentenced to six months' service on the reef, where he will be placed in charge of one of the Territorial hand-picked rock crushers.

Ah Chua, charged with larceny in the second degree, was committed to the Circuit Court for trial. Joe Castro and Gloria Almada were found guilty of adultery and each received a fine of $25 and costs.

A Hawaiian woman named Kela Kalakookulu was arraigned upon a charge of selling liquor without a license. Some months ago the woman was arrested upon a similar charge, which was nolle prosequed. Upon the court's being apprised of the second offense, the fine suspended for the infraction of the Territorial liquor ordinances was enforced. The defendant was fined $100 and costs.

A Violent Attack of Croup Cured.
"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Filio, Mo., U. S. A. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substances and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by all druggists and dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

Last month's mortality report showed the lowest number of deaths of any month for three years past. There were only 96 deaths reported, this being about a third less than any of the recent months.

There Is No Longer Any Doubt

ACCORDING TO A NOTED SPECIALIST IN HAIR AND SKIN DISEASES, THAT BALDNESS IS CAUSED BY A MICROBE. THERE IS A WAY OF GETTING RID OF IT, THOUGH, WHEN YOU KNOW THE NATURE OF YOUR LITTLE ENEMY will absolutely cure catarrhal inflammation of the hair follicle; it is the most common of scalp diseases.

Nine-tenths of the premature baldness is due to it, and gray hair is usually the result of it. There's no doubt that it is due to a microbe, which attacks the sebaceous glands.

This causes dandruff and itching. Then the hair begins to fall out, and that shows that the microbe has left the sebaceous glands and has burrowed into the hair follicle. There it causes inflammation and loosens the hair root, and goes on to another follicle. Meanwhile it raises an army of children, and they all go to war in the same way. The wrecked follicles left behind, the conquering hosts fill up with a fungous growth, and even when the new hair sprouts it is poorly nourished and diseased. All the other scalp diseases are more or less along the same line, and due to parasitic or microbial attack.

PACHECO'S DANDRUFF KILLER will destroy the parasite, because it penetrates to the entire depths of the hair follicle. It then feeds the roots and follicles and rebuilds the wasted tissues.
